Collect

Risen, ascended Lord,
as we rejoice at your triumph,
fill your Church on earth with power and compassion,
that all who are estranged by sin
may find forgiveness and know your peace,
to the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

Acts 16.16-34

16 One day, as we were going to the place of prayer, we met a slave-girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners a great deal of money by fortune-telling. ¹⁷While she followed Paul and us, she would cry out, 'These men are slaves of the Most High God, who proclaim to you a way of salvation.' ¹⁸She kept doing this for many days. But Paul, very much annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, 'I order you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her.' And it came out that very hour.

19 But when her owners saw that their hope of making money was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the market-place before the authorities. ²⁰When they had brought them before the magistrates, they said, 'These men are disturbing our city; they are Jews ²¹and are advocating customs that are not lawful for us as Romans to adopt or observe.'²²The crowd joined in attacking them, and the magistrates had them stripped of their clothing and ordered them to be beaten with rods.²³After they had given them a severe flogging, they threw them into prison and ordered the jailer to keep them securely. ²⁴Following these instructions, he put them in the innermost cell and fastened their feet in the stocks. ²⁵About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. ²⁶Suddenly there was an earthquake, so violent that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were unfastened. ²⁷When the jailer woke up and saw the prison doors wide open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, since he supposed that the prisoners had escaped. ²⁸But Paul shouted in a loud voice, 'Do not harm yourself, for we are all here.' ²⁹The jailer called for lights, and rushing in, he fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. ³⁰Then he brought them outside and said, 'Sirs, what must I do to be saved?'³¹They answered, 'Believe on the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household.'³²They spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. ³³At the same hour of the night he took them and washed their wounds; then he and his entire family were baptized without delay. ³⁴He brought them up into the house and set food before them; and he and his entire household rejoiced that he had become a believer in God.

John 17.20-end

20 'I ask not only on behalf of these, but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word, ²¹that they may all be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. ²²The glory that you have given me I have given them, so that they may be one, as we are one, ²³I in them and you in me, that they may become completely one, so that the world may know that you have sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me.'²⁴Father, I desire that those also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, to see my glory, which you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world.

25 'Righteous Father, the world does not know you, but I know you; and these know that you have sent me. ²⁶I made your name known to them, and I will make it known, so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them.'

PRAYERS

Heavenly Father,

give us a heart to seek first your kingdom, for where our treasure is, there our heart will be also.

Give us a heart of flesh to renounce selfishness, a heart that hears and responds to the need of others, and a heart that finds its rest in you. Teach us to live with simplicity and joy, that others may be drawn into the beauty of your Kingdom.

In Jesus' name we pray.

Amen.

We might also like to pray for-

- Ukraine and Afghanistan; for an end to the conflict in these places and for peace with justice.
- For our curate, Stephen, who is preparing to leave for North Stowe
- For the work of Romsey Mill Youth Groups in the Trumpington Pavilion
- For the people we know who are receiving treatment in hospital or convalescing at home
- For the Queen as she prepares to celebrate her Jubilee.

CHURCH NOTICES

Ukrainian refugee response

Some churches are engaging with the Sanctuary Foundation, set up by Krish Kandiah to support the official response to Ukrainian refugees. This is linked to the Refugee Resettlement programme, with a track record of welcoming other refugee communities. The Parish Church of St Barnabas, Mill Road, Cambridge, are offering support & co-ordination to potential host families. Do visit the website of the Sanctuary Foundation if you want to know more, where you will find an introductory video to hosting refugees:

Thy Kingdom Come

On the same theme, participating in Archbishop Welby's initiative, Mandy will be having a time of prayer in church on 30th and 31st May, 2nd and 3rd June at 7.30pm. We will be praying for peace, for the church and the parish, and for people who have requested our prayers. All welcome.

M&Ms

(Youth Group for young persons aged 9+)

Meets each month in either Trumpington or Newnham.

Next meeting 12th June

The Jubilee and Cakes

After the 10am service on June 5th, when we say goodbye to Stephen, the congregation are invited to go to Trumpington Pavilion for a Jubilee picnic. The event opens at 12 noon and will finish at 4pm. Come and go as you please! The church has been asked if they can contribute to refreshments - any cakes or bakes gratefully accepted. Please let Mandy know if you are willing to create bakes for this event.

Home Groups

There are 4 home groups now meeting at different times and places! If you would like to join a home group, please speak to Mandy. The next dates are 1:30pm at the Bakehouse on Monday June 6th and 7:30pm on zoom on Wednesday June 8th.

Trinity College Visit

Members of the Trumpington congregation are invited to Trinity College on Sunday 12th June. Tea – sandwiches, scones and cakes – will be served at 4.00 pm in the Old Kitchen, followed by a short tour of the College ending in the Chapel in time for Choral Evensong. The preacher on that Sunday will be the Dean of Chapel. There will also be drinks after the service in the Ante-Chapel, finishing around 7.50 pm, and a further opportunity to hear the choir at the Singing on the River concert which starts at 8.45 pm. If you are interested in going, please let Mandy know.

Sunday June 19th – Party at 149 Shelford Road

Edmund is hosting a party – with train rides - from 1pm-4pm. He will provide teas, coffees and soft drinks. You are invited to bring your own picnic which will be supplemented by strawberries and ice cream. There will be some outdoor games for children. If you would like to come, please let Edmund know so he has an idea of numbers.

Participation in Services

If you would like to read the bible passage during services on Sundays, or if you would like to do the Prayers of Intercession, please contact the Vicar or Churchwarden. We can talk through what is involved. It would be great to have more volunteers for these roles.

Please send all notices for the Sunday pewsheet to the Vicar by Tuesday.
