Collect

God of truth,
help us to keep your law of love
and to walk in ways of wisdom,
that we may find true life
in Jesus Christ your Son.

Amen.

1 Kings 19

New Century Version

Elijah Runs Away

19 King Ahab told Jezebel every thing Elijah had done and how Elijah had killed all the prophets with a sword. ² So Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "May the gods punish me terribly if by this time tomorrow I don't kill you just as you killed those prophets."

³ When Elijah heard this, he was afraid and ran for his life, taking his servant with him. When they came to Beersheba in Judah, Elijah left his servant there. ⁴ Then Elijah walked for a whole day into the desert. He sat down under a bush and asked to die. "I have had enough, Lord," he prayed.

"Let me die. I am no better than my ancestors." ⁵ Then he lay down under the tree and slept.

Suddenly an angel came to him and touched him. "Get up and eat," the angel said. ⁶ Elijah saw near his head a loaf baked over coals and a jar of water, so he ate and drank. Then he went back to sleep.

⁷ Later the Lord's angel came to him a second time. The angel touched him and said, "Get up and eat. If you don't, the journey will be too hard for you." ⁸ So Elijah got up and ate and drank. The food made him strong enough to walk for forty days and nights to Mount Sinai, the mountain of God. ⁹ There Elijah went into a cave and stayed all night. Then the Lord spoke his word to him: "Elijah! Why are you here?"

¹⁰ He answered, "Lord God All-Powerful, I have always served you as well as I could. But the people of Israel have broken their agreement with you, destroyed your altars, and killed your prophets with swords. I am the only prophet left, and now they are trying to kill me, too."

¹¹ The Lord said to Elijah, "Go, stand in front of me on the mountain, and I will pass by you." Then a very strong wind blew until it caused the mountains to fall apart and large rocks to break in front of the Lord. But the Lord was not in the wind. After the wind, there was an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake. ¹² After the earthquake, there was a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire. After the fire, there was a quiet, gentle sound. ¹³ When Elijah heard it, he covered his face with his coat and went out and stood at the entrance to the cave.

Then a voice said to him, "Elijah! Why are you here?"

¹⁴ He answered, "Lord God All-Powerful, I have always served you as well as I could. But the people of Israel have broken their agreement with you, destroyed your altars, and killed your prophets with swords. I am the only prophet left, and now they are trying to kill me, too."

¹⁵ The Lord said to him, "Go back on the road that leads to the desert around Damascus. Enter that city, and pour olive oil on Hazael to make him king over Aram. ¹⁶ Then pour oil on Jehu son of Nimshi to make him king over Israel. Next, pour oil on Elisha son of Shaphat from Abel Meholah to make him a prophet in your place. ¹⁸ I have seven thousand people left in Israel who have never bowed down before Baal and whose mouths have never kissed his idol."

Luke 8: 26-39

26 Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. ²⁷ As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. ²⁸ When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me'— ²⁹ for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) ³⁰ Jesus then asked him, 'What is your name?' He said, 'Legion'; for many demons had entered him. ³¹ They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss. ³² Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. ³³ Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

³⁴ When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. ³⁵ Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. ³⁶ Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. ³⁷ Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. ³⁸ The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, ³⁹ 'Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.' So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

PRAYERS

You are great, O Lord God; for there is no one like you, and there is no God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears. Amen. (David's prayer, 2 Samuel 7:22)

We might also like to pray for-

- For the children baptised in June; Florence Wells and Emma Gudmundsdottir Harvey
- Ukraine and Afghanistan; for an end to the conflict in these places and for peace with justice.
- For households unable to meet the rising cost of living
- For the work of Mops (Mothers of Preschoolers) and Memory Café.
- For this church, that it may grow in faith and in number

CHURCH NOTICES

Ukrainian refugee response

Some churches are engaging with the Sanctuary Foundation, set up by Krish Kandiah to support the official response to Ukrainian refugees. This is linked to the Refugee Resettlement programme, with a track record of welcoming other refugee communities. The Parish Church of St Barnabas, Mill Road, Cambridge, are offering support & co-ordination to potential host families. Do visit the website of the Sanctuary Foundation if you want to know more, where you will find an introductory video to hosting refugees: <https://www.sanctuaryfoundation.org.uk>

Sunday June 19th – Party at 149 Shelford Road: TODAY

Edmund is hosting a party for us all to celebrate our emergence from the pandemic and a chance to renew our fellowship and companionship in an informal setting – with train rides for all ages. Timings are roughly 1-4pm; drop in at your convenience.

You are invited to bring your own picnic which will be supplemented by strawberries and ice cream and drinks. There will be some outdoor games for children. If you would like to come, please let Edmund know so he has an idea of numbers and to ensure we have sufficient supplies!

Foster Road Allotments Open Day - Saturday July 9th; 12-4pm.

(Profits donated to Memory Café and the Trumpington Food Hub)

Do come along on the day. If anyone would like to help on the day, please mail: tra.jcovill@gmail.com

Participation in Services

If you would like to read the bible passage during services on Sundays, or if you would like to do the Prayers of Intercession, please contact the Vicar or Churchwarden. We can talk through what is involved. It would be great to have more volunteers for these roles.

Please send all notices for the Sunday pewsheets to the Vicar by Tuesday.
