Collect

Risen Christ,
you filled your disciples with boldness
and fresh hope:
strengthen us to proclaim your risen life
and fill us with your peace,
to the glory of God the Father.

Amen

Acts 3.12-19

¹²When Peter saw it, he addressed the people, 'You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk?' ¹³The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. ¹⁴But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, ¹⁵and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. ¹⁶And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you.

¹⁷ 'And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. ¹⁸In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. ¹⁹Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out,

Luke 24.36b-48

³⁶ While they were talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' ³⁷They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. ³⁸He said to them, 'Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts?' ³⁹Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.' ⁴⁰And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. ⁴¹While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, 'Have you anything here to eat?' ⁴²They gave him a piece of broiled fish, ⁴³and he took it and ate in their presence.

⁴⁴ Then he said to them, 'These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.' ⁴⁵Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, ⁴⁶and he said to them, 'Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, ⁴⁷and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. ⁴⁸You are witnesses of these things.

Post Communion Prayer

Living God,
your Son made himself known to his disciples
in the breaking of bread:
open the eyes of our faith,
that we may see him in all his
redeeming work;
who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

Amen

PRAYERS

Lord God,
You call us in Christ
to active discipleship.
Embolden our faith to see you in the ordinary things of life;
may we hear you speaking to us on the Way,
and prompt us to recognise you in
those we meet.

We ask this in Jesus' name.

Amen.

Please continue to pray for...

Our GP's surgeries and all who work in them; carers and families workers, our schools and colleges; those who deliver goods to our homes.

For people looking for work and making decisions to retrain. For students preparing for important exams.

For people known to us who are housebound or living in residential care.
For those who are in pain or ill in body,
mind or spirit.

For people who continue to shield.

Give thanks and pray for the many volunteers who have helped people through the pandemic; for friends and family.

For the Queen and the Royal Family
mourning the loss of HRH Philip, Duke of Edinburgh.

(Please send other prayer requests to the Vicar)

Kigali Diocese

Easter Thanksgiving for the vaccine (news from the diocese)

Many of us have felt a great sense of joy and relief as they have received the vaccine. Others are confident that their turn will come soon. As a way of expressing our gratitude we as a diocese have the opportunity to support our brothers and sisters in Rwanda. Like all countries they have experienced school and church closures alongside much of business. Normal life for them has stopped as well. This has meant that some of the poorest and most vulnerable in the country have suffered the most.

Last year we supported their food programme. This year let's continue that as well as support others in Kigali diocese- those with no savings and very little income as they are dependent on what they can earn during the day. Paul in Colossians 3 reminds the church to let the peace of Christ rule our hearts, to be thankful and to express our gratitude.

If you would like to contribute as part of our Easter Thanksgiving, you can use search Easter Thanksgiving for Kigali Diocese on the JustGiving website.

COMMUNITY NEWS & NOTICES

Trumpington Clothes Hub

You might have noticed a blue plastic box in the Bakehouse porch? This has been placed there by the Trumpington Clothes Hub who are collecting good quality children's clothes for redistribution to Trumpington families. If you have any good quality children's clothes that you want to donate, please do put them in the box. A leaflet to explain more about this initiative is on the way!
