

Where do you travel?

In this week's gospel story, Jesus sends his disciples ahead of him, to all the places where He plans to visit.

You might like to draw a map of the places you visit each day, week or month. Where do you rest? Where do you shop? Where do you learn? Where do you work? Where do you relax? Mark each of these places on your map, and think about how you might be the one who brings the good news of Jesus and His Kingdom to that place.

(You might like to use the map of Trumpington on the next page as a base, and mark your places on the map. Or you could draw your own map to emphasise the places that are important to you.)

Alternatively, you might like to take a more figurative approach, and think of your life as a journey. Where have you been? What have you done? Who have you encountered on the way? Draw a map of your life, and again think about how you might have been the one going to the places Jesus wants to be. How have you shown the people around you the good news of Jesus's Kingdom? How might you do so?
