Collect

God of glory,
the end of our searching,
help us to lay aside all that prevents us from seeking your kingdom,
and to give all that we have to gain the pearl beyond all price, through our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen

Matthew 16.13-20

13 Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, 'Who do people say that the Son of Man is?' 14And they said, 'Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' 15He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?' 16Simon Peter answered, 'You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.' 17And Jesus answered him, 'Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. 18And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. 19I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.' 20Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

Romans 12.1-8

12I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. 2Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect.

3 For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgement, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. 4For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, 5so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. 6We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; 7ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; 8the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

Post Communion Prayer

Lord of all mercy,
we your faithful people have celebrated that one true sacrifice which takes away our sins and brings pardon and peace:
by our communion
keep us firm on the foundation of the gospel and preserve us from all sin;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

PRAYERS

Please pray for families during the August summer holiday; families staying at home and families going on holiday. Pray for families feeling the pressure with children at home for another 6 weeks after the lock-down period. Pray also for Helen's work on Clay Farm and Trumpington Meadows – for the Toy Library and activity packs. Pray for good conversations and connections to be made through this project.

Please also remember couples planning their weddings in September and October; that their preparations during this precarious time go smoothly.

This week, please also pray for:

The Government and their advisors as they start to plan for the future.

Scientists working to produce a vaccine

People who continue to self-isolate

Cambridge Care Home; for staff and residents

Those who work in Addenbrookes Hospital and Brookfields Hospital; for nurses, GP's and carers known to you.

For care workers and people facing unemployment or redeployment

For all who work in our local schools who are engaged in planning for pupils to return

For the work of the Trumpington Community Fridge and those who depend upon it

For equality in the UK and where necessary, reform of institutional structures

Pray for a new Churchwarden and PCC Secretary, and thank God for the contributions of those who serve the church and sit on the PCC.

CHURCH NEWS & NOTICES

(Please send any notices to the Church Office by 9am Tuesday)

Church re-opening for Private Prayer

The church building will be open on Wednesdays and Fridays from 12noon till 2pm. It will be staffed by a steward during these times. Please enter through the North Door and leave through the door in the chancel. Space for prayer will, at the moment, be confined to the Chancel. Thank you for your patience! We will be making adjustments to the opening arrangements so please watch this space...

Please note that visitors will not have access to the Bakehouse toilet.

Church Re-Opening for Public Worship

The government has granted permission for public worship to recommence in church buildings. This is accompanied by a raft of regulations in order to minimise the risk of spreading the Covid-19 virus. The following is proposed during August:

August 23rd – 10am Holy Communion zoomed from church (no congregation)

August 30th – 9am BCP Communion in church with congregation (not zoomed)

10am – Holy Communion zoomed from church (no congregation)

12 noon – Church Outside

In September we hope to resume a 10am congregation in church. More details on that proposal over the next few weeks.

For the BCP and Evensong services in the church building there will be hand sanitizer on entry and a clear indication of where to sit in the nave. Participants will be given a 1662 prayer book to keep and bring with them to future services. Wipe-clean summaries of the BCP Communion service are also available, which are ideal for those not familiar with this service. A record of who attends these services will also be necessary to aid the government track and trace scheme, so please don't worry if we stand by the door requesting your name! This pattern of services will be updated and modified as government regulations change.

Church Fabric Repairs

Work will start soon on carrying out essential repairs to the Church's fabric which were identified in the 2018 Architect's Inspection, it will largely be contained within the South Chapel and North Aisle. While the main work will start in early September, initial investigative work on the Thomas Allen Memorial and associated stone work will be carried out during week commencing 17th August. During the works the church will remain open for private prayer on Wednesdays and Fridays 12.00 – 14.00."

Trumpington Community Food Hub

A new community fridge and food hub has opened at Trumpington Pavilion. Open every Tuesday and Friday noon to 3pm. Distributing food that would otherwise go to waste. Please volunteer, donate food, and spread the word. For more information please contact hello@trumpington.info

HonC!

HonC! Will be taking a break for August, but we do have other activities planned (see notice below). To stay in touch with HonC! please visit our Facebook page and blog

Toy Lending Library and Family Activity Packs

We are meeting this coming week on: Tuesday 25th 10 – 12 midday at Clay Farm Community Centre Thursday 27th August 1 -3pm at Trumpington Meadows Reserve

Do spread the word to families and do come along!

Some comments from families:

"It is so lovely to get out of the house and for my child to meet another child after such a long time"

"My child is really excited about playing with a different toy!"

"The activity packs are well thought out and the quality of the books is great"

Return of the (hard copy) Trumpet

The Trumpet will be published in hard copy around the 30th of July and will be delivered to as many homes in Trumpington as possible.
