

Reflection for the week:

I have this quote on a bookmark that rests in the bible I use for daily reading. I was given the bookmark as a gift from a child in a church where I was on placement, pre-ordination. I don't know where the quote comes from but it says so much in one tidy sentence:

Next time your little hut is burning to the ground
it just may be a smoke signal
that summons the grace of God.