God our saviour,
look on this wounded world
in pity and in power;
hold us fast to your promises of peace
won for us by your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.

AmenRomans 6.12-end

12 Therefore, do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. ¹³No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. ¹⁴For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. ¹⁵What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means!¹⁶Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? ¹⁷But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted, ¹⁸and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. ¹⁹I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification.

20 When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. ²¹So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. ²²But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life. ²³For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Matthew 10.40-end

40 'Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. ⁴¹Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; ⁴²and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple—truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.'

Post Communion Prayer

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining and whose power we cannot comprehend:
show us your glory as far as we can grasp it,
and shield us from knowing more than we can bear
until we may look upon you without fear;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen

PRAYERS

John Calvin summed up the Gospel shaped life as being contained in 1 Corinthians 6:19a-20:

'You are not your own; you were bought at a price.'

This week, you might like to pray and reflect on what this means.

This week, please also pray for:

The Government and their advisors
Scientists working to produce a vaccine

People who continue to self-isolating

Cambridge Care Home; for staff and residents

Those who work in Addenbrookes Hospital and Brookfields Hospital; for nurses, GP's and carers known to you.

For care workers, people facing unemployment, people on zero hours contracts

For all who work in food production, distribution and those who work in local supermarkets

For families feeling the pressure of lock-down

For all who work in schools who are engaged in planning for pupils to return

For the work of the Trumpington Community Fridge and those who depend upon it

For all places where there is civil unrest; may justice and mercy prevail

For equality in the UK and where necessary, reform of institutional structures

Please pray for our return into the church building for public worship; that we can use the experiences from the lock-down period to enhance our worship and deepen our faith.

The Names of people who have requested to be remembered in prayer:

Edmund's talk on Zoom

'Accessible Hidden Places'

Friday July 3rd, 7.30pm.

Zoom details for joining will available on the website.

Bring your own snacks and drinks!

Presence:

a space to connect in the now.

New Information

We initially imagined Presence to be a space for whole families to come together, adults and children, to be nurtured.

However, three sessions later, we are now thinking that it is we that need this time - adults, parents, us that give out so much to those with whom we care for every day, that need some time out. Time to reflect, to be still.

Presence draws on, amongst other things, ideas from Christian spirituality, contemplation and mindfulness practices. However, you don't have to believe in anything to come along. It is simply a place to be cared for. To rest.

Do join us next Thursday 2nd July at 8pm for about 1 hour.

The Zoom details are:

Daily Hope

A free national phone line Daily Hope is now available for people who do not have access to the internet. The line will be available 24 hours a day on: 0800 804 8044

Possible Online Activities:

If you would be interested in hearing a Zoom talk on a Friday evening, please let Mandy know. Edmund has offered to do a talk on his excursions off the beaten track. It will take some time to pull this together, so a heads up beforehand would be useful.

On a similar tack, we have had some great talks in our services. As dedicated listeners, would you be interested in a Monday evening chat about the readings used at the service and to ask any questions about the talk/sermon given the day before? If so, please can you email your thoughts to Mandy.
