Collect

Risen Christ,
by the lakeside you renewed your call to your disciples: help your Church to obey your command and draw the nations to the fire of your love,
to the glory of God the Father

Amen

Acts 17.22-31

22 Then Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, 'Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way. ²³For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, "To an unknown god." What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. ²⁴The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands, ²⁵nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things. ²⁶From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, ²⁷so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him—though indeed he is not far from each one of us. ²⁸For "In him we live and move and have our being"; as even some of your own poets have said, "For we too are his offspring."
²⁹Since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals. ³⁰While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent,³¹because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead.'

John 14.15-21

15 'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. ¹⁶And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. ¹⁷This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.
18 'I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. ¹⁹In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. ²⁰On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. ²¹They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them.'

Post Communion Prayer

God our Father, whose Son Jesus Christ gives the water of eternal life:
may we thirst for you,
the spring of life and source of goodness,
through him who is alive and reigns,
now and for ever

Amen

PRAYERS

This week we can thank God for sending his Spirit to be our guide, and that through the Spirit we can share in the very life of God. How incredible! Perhaps we need to pray for guidance for ourselves or on behalf of another, or need the Spirit's help to discern the truth of a situation? In the reading from Acts, St. Paul reminds us that in God 'we live and move and have our being.' In all our prayers let us remember that we have nothing that has not been given to us by God.

This week, please also pray for:

The Government and their advisors

Scientists working to produce a vaccine and testing kits

People who are self-isolating

People diagnosed with the Corona Virus

Cambridge Care Home; for staff and residents

Those who work in Addenbrookes Hospital, Brookfields Hospital, and the National Health Service.

For care workers, people facing unemployment, people on zero hours contracts

For all who work in food production, distribution and those who work in local supermarkets

For families feeling the pressure of lock-down

That this church community may grow in faith, and that people may come to faith through this period of confinement.

Names of people who have requested to be remembered in prayer:

Geoffrey Howard, Muriel Tarrant, Joan Holloway & the family of the late Trevor Brown
