Collect

Risen Christ,
you filled your disciples with boldness and fresh hope:
strengthen us to proclaim your risen life and fill us with your peace, to the glory of God the Father.

Amen

Acts 2.14a, 36-41

14 But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them:
'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say.

<sup>36</sup>Therefore let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified.'

37 Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, 'Brothers, what should we do?' <sup>38</sup>Peter said to them, 'Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. <sup>39</sup>For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him.'<sup>40</sup>And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, 'Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.'<sup>41</sup>So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

Luke 24.13-35

13 Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, <sup>14</sup>and talking with each other about all these things that had happened.<sup>15</sup>While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, <sup>16</sup>but their eyes were kept from recognizing him.<sup>17</sup>And he said to them, 'What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?' They stood still, looking sad. <sup>18</sup>Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, 'Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?' <sup>19</sup>He asked them, 'What things?' They replied, 'The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, <sup>20</sup>and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. <sup>21</sup>But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place.'<sup>22</sup>Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, <sup>23</sup>and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. <sup>24</sup>Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him.'<sup>25</sup>Then he said to them, 'Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! <sup>26</sup>Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?' <sup>27</sup>Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

28 As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. <sup>29</sup>But they urged him strongly, saying, 'Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over.' So he went in to stay with them. <sup>30</sup>When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. <sup>31</sup>Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. <sup>32</sup>They said to each other, 'Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?' <sup>33</sup>That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. <sup>34</sup>They were saying, 'The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!' <sup>35</sup>Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Post Communion Prayer

Living God,
your Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread:

open the eyes of our faith, that we may see him in all his redeeming work;

who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

Amen

PRAYERS

Jesus accompanies two bewildered disciples on the road to Emmaus. They are 'kept' from recognising him, but Jesus is later revealed to them in the breaking of bread. Pray that we learn to recognise Jesus in all situations, even those times and places when he seems to be absent. Pray for those who accompany us on our life's journey, and for those we accompany.

This week, please also pray for:

Scientists working to produce a vaccine and testing kits

People who are self-isolating

People diagnosed with the Corona Virus

Cambridge Care Home; for staff and residents

Addenbrookes Hospital, Brookfields Hospital and the National Health Service, and those who work within them.

For care workers, people facing unemployment, people on zero hours contracts

For all who work in food production, distribution and those who work in local supermarkets

For families feeling the pressure of lock-down

That this church community may grow in faith, and that people may come to faith, through this period of confinement.

Names of people who have requested to be remembered in prayer:

Kate, Geoffrey Howard, Muriel Tarrant

Annual Meeting

Our Annual Parochial Church Meeting (the church's AGM), when we receive the church's annual report and accounts and elect churchwardens, deanery synod representatives and PCC members, would ordinarily have taken place this Sunday.

Instead, because of the Coronavirus pandemic, the meeting has had to be postponed until the autumn, and all existing postholders will remain in place in the meantime.

Notice from the Vicar

As some of you may be aware, there are a number of vulnerable families living in Trumpington who need additional support at this time and will continue to need assistance after the lock-down has been lifted.

The Families Workers from the Trumpington Federation have given me a list of things that would help families on low incomes. One of the needs is for plain white short-sleeved PE t-shirts (from age 5 – age 11). They also need 'a few pairs' of boys grey trousers, ages 6, 7, 8, 9.

This school uniform is available from Tesco and/or Sainsbury's TU clothing online. The t-shirts come in packs of 3, the trousers in pairs.

If anyone would consider buying one pack of t-shirts, or one pack of trousers, please can you let me know? I can then ensure that we don't end up with 30 age 5 shirts, etc. I will also arrange a time to collect and deliver these items directly to the schools.

I have been working in partnership with Trumpington Voluntary Service for other needs, but this contribution will be solely from St. Mary and St. Michael's and will not involve other agencies.

And can I say thank you for your continuing support for one another. All greatly appreciated,
Mandy
